Dearest Lottie:

No mail to-day, I fixed up some of my junk to-day, and made 3 more bracelets. They are for some friends of mine. I sent you a box last week with a few bracelets, with instructions as who to give them to. Right?

I got my boy, Celsius, pronounced Sell-shoes, an English-Maylayan book, and he has been studying all-day, trying to learn to speak English. He's coming along o.k. I have a book, and have picked up quite a few words.

To-day I borrowed a chair and large table to put in my tent. We have a nice tent that we will put up to-morrow in our permanent area. It don't leak, like the one I have now. And this one leaks, for I slept in it last night, and it rained. Right?

Please send me some food. Guess who sent me a Xmas box? Rosalie! How do you like that? She wrote me a long letter, for her husband is overseas.

Be good and write soon!

Love,
Harold
